The Honorable William E. Casey
Director

Dear Mr. Casey:

We are delighted to learn, through the good offices of Lloyd Hand of TRW, that you will be able again to be with the Business Council at Hot Springs next month. We are tentatively scheduling you for half-hour on Saturday morning, May 8th, from approximately 9:15 to 9:45 a.m., on the subject of "Review and Assessment of Current Strategic Foreign Policy Objectives."

In your audience on May 8th will be about 125 Business Council members, plus their wives, as well as a handful of other speakers and guests, most colleagues of yours from the top levels of government. As you know, these sessions are completely off the record, providing for an open exchange of ideas between the audience and the speakers. Since no press attend the business sessions, there is a mid-day press conference conducted by Walter Wriston and I am sure that he would welcome your presence, if you wished to attend.

Our invitation to you includes your nice wife and we hope that you both will be our guests for as much of the session as possible. The meeting officially begins with an informal reception on Thursday evening, May 6th. After the May 7th morning business session the afternoon is left open for recreation, then there is a black-tie dinner in the evening at which the Vice President will be our speaker. At the adjournment of the Saturday, May 8th, morning session, the meeting is officially concluded.

We will, of course, handle hotel reservations for you and Mrs. Casey at The Homestead, and will be delighted to assist in any other way. If you have any questions, I will be glad to answer them for you.

As the date for the meeting draws nearer, you will be receiving full details on the program. Meantime, we want you to know what a pleasure it will be to have you and Mrs. Casey with us once again.

Sincerely,

John W. Burke, Jr.
Executive Secretary
